

134- 352

DIXON HOUSE - c. 1855 - West side of Poplar Hill Road, 0.4 mile south of Paper Mill Road, well back from highway. Also called Weymouth Farm. Frame and clapboard house of two stories with gable roofing. Three-bay central block with off-center entrance; door with transome and sidelights. Federal style. Three frame wings. Possible built for summer boarders. Hand-hewn beams in cellar. Land was acquired in 1855 by Dr. William Thompson from Mary and Jemima Gorsuch. Thompson was a Naval surgeon and world traveler. This house is first found in the 1876 tax ledger, then in 1877 atlas. There is also a three story frame and clapboard, hexagonal gazebo with observation deck, originally containing a water tank. Large ginko tree and American Larch tree on grounds. Owner: Dr. William T. Dixon.